This site is preparing to integrate ScienceWord, which features:

Convenient and fast online mixed arrangement of formulas and text
Rapid online drawing of mathematical curves
Dynamic association technology for logical graphics
Powerful online drawing capabilities
Online editing of organic chemical polymer formulas

All of this only requires you to install a plugin (we will prompt you, so you don't need to worry about not knowing how to operate it). Let's enter the test now!

Interactive ScienceWord Component
(ActiveX Control: `posteditor_swocx1`)
Note: This interactive element requires a specific browser plugin and is not viewable in a standard PDF reader.
